2024 CELEBRATE THE FAMILY CONTEST WINNERS ANNOUNCED – ART SHOW AND ARTIST RECEPTION ON TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 19

Chino Hills, CA – At the November 12 Council Meeting, the Chino Hills City Council honored 12 winners of the City's 27th Annual Celebrate the Family Poster and Essay Writing Contest. The contest celebrates the importance of family during National Family Week. This year's theme was "Happiness is Homemade" and 12 winners were recognized from over 700 entries submitted by students in kindergarten through eighth grade.

Prizes were awarded to the first, second, and third place winners in each age category. Gift cards to The Shoppes at Chino Hills were awarded to first, second, and third place winners in the amounts of $200, $100, and $50 respectively. All winners also received a $50 gift card to The Stand restaurant. A certificate was awarded to Loving Savior of the Hills for having the highest participation from their students in the kindergarten, first through third, and seventh through eighth grade categories. A certificate was also awarded to Rolling Ridge Elementary for having the highest participation from students in the fourth through sixth grade category. Classrooms with the highest participation were entered into a raffle to win a $100 Hobby Lobby gift card and Litel Elementary teacher Ms. Norimoto won the raffle.

The community is invited to celebrate the winning artists and see their artwork on display during the Celebrate the Family Artist Reception on Tuesday, November 19 at 6:00 pm at the Chino Hills Community Center. All the winning student's artwork will be on display in the lobby of the Community Center from November 19 through next February. For more information on the Artist Reception and to view the winning entries online, visit www.chinohills.org/CelebrateTheFamily.
