LIVING WITH WILDLIFE PRESENTATION MARCH 5th

The City of Chino Hills and the Inland Valley Humane Society (IVHS) have scheduled a community meeting at 7:00 p.m. on Wednesday, March 5th at the new Chino Hills Community Center, 14250 Peyton Drive. A Wildlife Officer from IVHS will provide tips for “Living with Wildlife,” take questions from the audience, share ideas on how to make coyotes uncomfortable in neighborhoods, and cover the responsibilities residents have when they enjoy the benefits of living adjacent to open space areas populated with wildlife. Wildlife whistles will also be available for participants. For more information, please call (909) 364-2714.
