BELINDA DOUGLAS RECOGNIZED AS HIGHLIGHTED VOLUNTEER

Belinda Douglas has been selected as the City of Chino Hills Highlighted Volunteer of the Quarter. She has lived in Chino Hills for 15 years and began her volunteer work with the Youth Accountability Board (YAB) in 2010. The YAB provides an alternative to probation for first-time, non-violent, youthful offenders. Hearing Panels review the teen's case and draft a contract that might involve community service, keeping up grades, and meeting with a mentor. Belinda provides support to the Hearing Panel and serves as a case tracker. She monitors the teen's progress and provides assistance as they fulfill their contract.

Belinda has also been very active at Calvary Chapel Chino Hills and enjoys donating her time by leading bible studies, assisting with ministries, and participating in church events and fundraisers. She enjoys volunteering because she likes giving back and helping to fill the needs of her immediate community. She also likes mentoring young people and helping parents as they work to raise their teens. For more information on the City's Volunteer Service Program, please call (909) 364-2713.
