The Art Committee of the Chino Hills Community Foundation, known as chARTS, has partnered with the City of Chino Hills to display the work of local artists in the lobby of the Chino Hills Community Center located at 14250 Peyton Drive. The work of three Chino Hills resident artists is now on display at the Community Center and chARTS is hosting a “Meet the Artists” reception on Thursday January 15th from 6:00 – 8:00 p.m. The featured artists this quarter are: Ken Perry - photographer, Tamara Wood - oil painter, and Hillary Miller - pastel, oil and watercolor painter. The artwork will be displayed for three months.

chARTS is led by local artists and art lovers who represent a wide range of expertise in fine arts, graphic design, music, creative writing, theater, and more. They encourage the creation, enjoyment, and enrichment of the arts in Chino Hills. The Chino Hills Community Center serves as a home base for chARTS. They curate the rotating display of local artwork at the venue. They hosted an author talk featuring World War II Veteran Wilbur Richardson; they presented a free concert featuring performances by local singer / songwriters; they featured a nationally-acclaimed opera singer and pianist performance; and, they presented theatrical performances including “The Complete Works of William Shakespeare – Abridged,” and a special holiday performance of “It’s a Wonderful Christmas Carol.”

Residents who may wish to share their special talents or artistic gifts are encouraged to visit <http://chinohillsfoundation.com/contact-us/> to connect with the chARTS committee.
