INLAND FAIR HOUSING & MEDIATION BOARD OFFERS FINANCIAL LITERACY COURSE FEBRUARY 16th

The Inland Fair Housing and Mediation Board (IFHMB) is offering a financial literacy course “Invest in Yourself” on Monday, February 16th from 1:00 – 5:00 p.m. at the Chino Hills Community Center, 14250 Peyton Drive. The class will provide information to help participants learn how to understand their cash flow and improve how they handle their finances. The course is free. For additional information, please call Luz Segovia at (909) 984-2254, ext. 118.

The City of Chino Hills encourages residents to take advantage of services provided by the IFHMB located in Ontario. IFHMB receives Community Development Block Grant funding from the City of Chino Hills. This private, non-profit, HUD-Approved Housing Counseling Agency has served the Inland Empire for more than 30 years. IFHMB serves as an intermediary to assist individuals in resolving issues related to housing discrimination, homeownership sustainability, rental complaints, and disputes in court through the provision of resource recommendations, education, and mediation. All services are free. Their offices are located in Ontario, and they assist thousands of individuals each year through numerous programs at no charge to the consumer. For more information, please call IFHMB at (800) 321-0911, email info@ifhmb.com, or visit www.ifhmb.com.
