SUMMARY

In the early hours of February 5, 2015, San Bernardino County Sheriff's Communications received a call from a resident who saw subjects looking through mailboxes and then leave the area in a gray truck. Deputies from the Chino Hills Station responded to the area and moments later located the described vehicle and conducted a traffic stop.

Woods, a passenger in the vehicle, was contacted and found to be on probation for Burglary out of Riverside County. Hymen was the driver. Mail believed to be stolen from residences in the area where the suspect vehicle was initially seen, was located in the cab of the truck. Woods also possessed a shaved key," an illegal burglary tool often used to steal cars. Woods was arrested for the burglary tool and probation violations and both were arrested for theft of mail. They were booked at West Valley Detention Center in Rancho Cucamonga.

Criminals commonly steal mail to gain enough personal information to victimize the intended recipient through identity theft and credit fraud. It is possible, if not likely, Woods and Hyman intended to do the same.
