City of Chino Hills Police Department

Date/Time Occurred: Saturday, March 21, 2015 / 1409 hours

Crime or Incident: Penal Codes 466 and 11364(a)

Location: 13111 Peyton Drive, Chino Hills

Suspect(s): Howard Beldon, WMA, 45 years-old, Resident of Pomona

SUMMARY

On Saturday, March 21, 2015, at approximately 1409 hours, deputies from the Chino Hills Police Station were dispatched to the Costco parking lot in reference a suspicious subject lurking in the area. A concerned Chino Hills citizen reported a male subject observed walking through the parking lot, carrying a backpack, and randomly looking into parked vehicles.

Deputies responded to the scene and contacted Howard Beldon inside the Costco parking lot. During a consent search of Beldon's backpack and personal belongings, deputies located a window punch tool, bolt cutters, an assortment of miscellaneous keys, and drug paraphernalia. Deputies immediately recognized the window punch, bolt cutters, and collection of keys are items commonly used to commit vehicle burglary or theft.
