Location: 2800 block of Rolling Meadow Drive, Chino Hills

Victim(s): County of San Bernardino

Suspect(s): Joseph Gonzales, 19 years of age a resident of Pomona
Roberto Balsach, 25 years of age a resident of Pomona

SUMMARY

On Wednesday, July 1, 2015, at approximately 0353 hours, a concerned Chino Hills citizen reported two suspicious subjects peering into parked vehicles near the 2800 block of Rolling Meadow Drive. Deputies arrived on scene and initiated a systematic search of the surrounding area but were unable to locate the subjects.

At approximately 0430 hours, while still actively patrolling the neighborhood, deputies observed two male subjects wandering the 99 Ranch Market parking lot, near the intersection of Peyton Dr. and Chino Avenue. Deputies contacted Balsach and Gonzales who matched the description of the two suspicious subjects previously reported. During their preliminary investigation Balsach was found in possession of a screwdriver, nylon gloves, and a folding pocket knife and Gonzales possessed a small baggie of suspected methamphetamine and a glass pipe commonly used to ingest illegal narcotics. Deputies returned to Rolling Meadow Dr. but found no evidence any vehicles were burglarized or tampered with. Both suspects were arrested and booked at the West Valley Detention Center without incident.
