CHINO HILLS ART SHOW – MEET THE ARTISTS OCTOBER 8th

The Art Committee of the Chino Hills Community Foundation, otherwise known as chARTS, has partnered with the City of Chino Hills to display the work of local artists. New art will be on display from October 5th to December 22nd in the lobby of the Chino Hills Community Center, 14250 Peyton Drive. A reception will be held on Thursday, October 8th from 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. to meet the artists Raul Acosta, Roberto Munguia, and Teresa Masucci.

More About the Artists:

Raul Acosta – Raul loves to paint in acrylics to create contemporary pieces with a Latin theme. He's drawn to bright and bold primary colors and enjoys experimenting with various techniques to create different styles of paintings.

Roberto Munguia – Roberto's various themes of artwork include social, emotional, political and dream-based artwork that, in one way or another, relate to the audiences' life. To name a few, he uses soft pastel, oil paint, gouache, and water color. Roberto is classified as a surrealist artist, using intense colors to express his thoughts with the world.

Teresa Masucci – Inspired by the vibrant colors of a “Dia de Los Muertos” celebration years ago, Teresa paints with vivid imagination to deliver her passion through brush strokes. Teresa’s husband and two children support the vision she had as a young girl, to become an artist. Art has allowed her to revive her youthful memories and give her audience creative artwork to admire.
