THE CHINO HILLS ARTS COMMITTEE PRESENTS AN AUTHOR TALK – AROUND THE MUSIC WITH GLEN ANDERSON

Chino Hills, CA – The Chino Hills Arts Committee (chARTS) invites residents to enjoy Around the Music with author Glen Anderson and special musical guest Dave Seltzer. The event will take place Friday, March 11th from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. at the Chino Hills Community Center, 14250 Peyton Drive. The evening will feature the Golden Age of Rock and Roll as author Glen Anderson brings to life behind the scenes details of memorable rock concerts in the 1960s and 1970s from his book Classic Performances. There will be beer, wine, and snacks available for purchase. To register, visit www.chinohills.org/chARTS, or call (909) 364-2826. Space is limited.

Glen Anderson grew up in the most exciting period of rock and roll. His insights and recollections of all these classic moments, recounted from his perspective as a professional musician who knows the equipment and the exuberance of being on stage, truly captures the magic of all of these shows. Glen is a Chino Hills resident, author, father, and a career professional musician who wrote the Classic Concerts column for Vintage Guitar magazine from 1999 through 2008. In 2008, he launched Hounddog Records where he released The Big Show Blues recording and Let's Pretend.

chARTS focuses on enriching the community in culture and the arts through events, workshops, and other types of activities. This committee is led by local artists and art lovers who represent a wide range of expertise in fine arts, graphic design, music, and more.
