HIGHLIGHTED VOLUNTEER OF THE QUARTER KELLY BRACAMONTES

Chino Hills, CA – Kelly Bracamontes is the City of Chino Hills Highlighted Volunteer of the Quarter. She is a 12-year resident of Chino Hills and began her volunteer work when her youngest son started school. Kelly currently volunteers with the City's Volunteer Service Program and has a seat on chARTS, the Art Committee of the Chino Hills Community Foundation. She plays a major role in coordinating the rotating art show at the Chino Hills Community Center, selecting the artists to be featured, working with the artists to gather their artwork, and organizing receptions for several shows each year.

Kelly has always enjoyed volunteering and helping others, whether it is for her family or her community. She loves being a part of something bigger than herself and believes that volunteering can make one feel more connected with their community. Kelly has made great memories through her volunteer work as well as lifelong friends.

During her spare time, Kelly enjoys spending time with her family and friends, creating art, gardening, decorating, and going to museums and art exhibits. She has been married to her husband, Gary, for 28 years. Together they have three children, Weston, Lauren, and Evan. They also have one dog, Gimley. Kelly encourages people to volunteer and believes that when volunteering is combined with passion, it can be very rewarding.
