City of Chino Hills Police Department

Date/Time Occurred: Sunday, May15, 2016/1:16 A.M.

Crime or Incident: CVC 2800.2-Felony evading, DUI

Location: Peyton Drive and Eucalyptus Avenue, Chino Hills

Suspect(s): Brenton Vandenbosch, 24 years of age, resident of Chino Hills

SUMMARY

On Sunday, May 15, 2016, at approximately 1:16 A.M., Brenton Vandenbosch was contacted after he was involved in a traffic collision and fled the scene. He led deputies on a short vehicle pursuit through Chino Hills with speeds reaching 80 miles per hour. He nearly collided with other cars as he failed to stop for a red traffic signal at Chino Hills Parkway and Peyton Drive. He yielded in a nearby residential neighborhood where it was determined he was under the influence of alcohol. The vehicle he was driving had significant front end damage consistent with the earlier traffic collision. Vandenbosch was arrested for felony evading, hit and run, and driving under the influence of alcohol. He was transported and booked at the West Valley Detention Center.
