INDEPENDENCE DAY CELEBRATION AND CONCERTS IN THE PARK WEDNESDAY, JUNE 29th

Chino Hills, CA – Chino Hills will combine Fourth of July festivities with the Wednesday, June 29th Concert in the Park at the “Independence Celebration” for the second time. The event will be held from 5:00 to 9:00 p.m. at Veterans Park, 14877 Eucalyptus Avenue, and is free for all ages to attend.

There will be game booths, community booths, face painting, family activities, and more. All activities are free! A balloon animal artist and a photo booth with props will also be featured. Uncle Sam walking on stilts will make an appearance from 5:00 to 7:00 p.m. Strolling entertainment will feature The Four Parts, a barbershop quartet, along with a stilt walker, a juggler, and a magician from 5:00 to 8:00 p.m. Red, white, and blue bandanas will be distributed starting at 5:00 p.m. The Chino Valley Young Marines will present the colors at the 6:30 p.m. ceremony. The Beach Boys tribute band, the SurfTunes, will play from 6:45 to 9:00 p.m. Red, white, and blue glow sticks will be distributed after sunset. Food will be available for purchase.
