SUMMARY:

Deputies were conducted extra patrol in the city and observed a vehicle driving slowly through a residential neighborhood. The vehicle was a close match to a vehicle that was captured by a burglary victim's video surveillance system. Deputies attempted to conduct a traffic stop on the vehicle but the driver fled. The vehicle lead deputies on a short pursuit before finally yielding on the off-ramp at the 71 and Pine Ave. The two occupants were later identified as the suspects listed above. During a search of the vehicle and the suspects deputies located evidence consistently used for residential burglaries. Additionally, both suspects have membership or affiliation to a criminal street gang out of Los Angeles.

Looney and Jackson were subsequently arrested for Burglary, and Conspiracy to commit burglary and were booked at the West Valley Detention Center.
