Teen Activity Center to Open August 14th

Chino Hills, CA – The Teen Activity Center (TAC), a free after-school drop-in program of the City of Chino Hills, will open Monday, August 14th to high-school teenagers ages 13-18. The TAC is located in the Chino Hills Community Center at 14250 Peyton Drive, directly across the street from Ruben S. Ayala High School.

The TAC offers a variety of supervised activities, including billiards, ping pong, and games. Televisions and study areas are available and teens may play appropriate music. The TAC is open Monday through Thursday from 2:00 to 4:30 p.m., and Friday from 2:00 to 4:00 p.m. The TAC is closed on City holidays and Chino Valley Unified School District holidays.

The City of Chino Hills' Community Services Department provides quality recreation activities that reflect the interest, needs, and demographics of Chino Hills residents. The City offers close to 100 different activities and classes for all ages in the fall, spring, and summer seasons. For more information and to view classes and schedules, go to <http://www.chinohills.org/RecOnline>.
