

Press Release

PR17 - 084

14000 City Center Drive, Chino Hills, CA 91709

CONTACT: Denise Cattern
Ph: (909) 364-2615

Valerie McClung
Ph: (909) 364-2618

DATE: September 6, 2017

CHINO HILLS DAY AT THE L.A. COUNTY FAIR IS SEPTEMBER 22nd

Chino Hills, CA – Join your friends and neighbors at Chino Hills Day at the Fair on Friday, September 22nd. Chino Hills residents may purchase discounted admission tickets for $8 (good only on September 22nd) at www.LACountyFair.com/buytickets. Enter the quantity of tickets and use promo code "chinohills22."

Residents can also purchase tickets at the Fair using a discount coupon provided with City utility bills mailed in August/September. Coupons are also available at City Hall at 14000 City Center Drive or can be printed from www.chinohills.org/Fair. Simply present the coupon at the admission gate to receive the discount.

At the Fair, the Chino Hills Community Heroes Bill Taylor and Alexis Anderson and winners of the "25 Years of Storytelling" Photo Contest will be recognized at a private reception. Winning photographs will also be displayed. The Community Parade will follow at 5:00 p.m. and will include many City dignitaries, youth groups, and community organizations from Chino Hills.

To help elementary, junior high and high school students in Chino Hills attend the Fair, the City of Chino Hills Community Committee raises funds to support the Big Yellow Bus Program which provides funds to transport students to the Los Angeles County Fair on September 22nd. Residents can help support these educational field trips with a donation to the Big Yellow Bus Program. Make your donation online at www.fairplex.com/givenow. Select the donation amount, then from the pull-down menu, select "Bus Program, Chino Hills."

Fairplex, home of the 2017 L.A. County Fair, has partnered with Chino Hills for more than 15 years by hosting the Annual L.A. County Fair Community Days Program. Each year the Chino Hills Community Committee, comprised of 21 residents and community leaders, coordinates and plans the day-long festivities for Chino Hills Day at the Fair.

###