ABNORMAL JOY, MINOR STRUT TO PERFORM IN FREE CONCERT AUGUST 24

Chino Hills, CA – The Chino Hills Community Foundation and Rockstars of Tomorrow are teaming up to offer a free concert on Friday, August 24 at the Chino Hills Community Center, 14250 Peyton Drive. Bring your lawn chairs or blanket and enjoy the evening. The two bands scheduled include young, talented musicians and singers. They got their start at Rockstars of Tomorrow, a local business that has redefined music education by teaching students how to rock on stage.

From 7:00 – 7:30 p.m. Abnormal Joy, a teenage all-girl band, will perform a variety of pop hits from artists such as Michael Jackson, Billie Eilish, Post Malone, and more. Minor Strut will perform from 8:00 – 9:00 p.m. These young performers started playing together in 2014 covering a variety of songs from Rock, Alternative, and Rockabilly bands. They also play some original songs they have written together. Minor Strut has played a variety of events throughout California, Arizona, and Hawaii, including the National Association of Music Merchants show in 2018.

The Chino Hills Community Foundation was formed in 2008 to enhance the quality of life in Chino Hills through local philanthropy that benefits Chino Hills residents. Promoting the arts has been one aspect of their mission. They have hosted live entertainment including theatrical performances, vocal concerts, the Chino Hills Jazz and Blues Festival, and concerts.
