JOHN McMAHON, SHERIFF-CORONER

DATE/TIME: Monday, August 13, 2018, Through Friday, August 24, 2018

INCIDENT: Traffic Enforcement

LOCATION: School Zones, City of Chino Hills

SUSPECT(S):

VICTIM(S):

SUMMARY: During the first two weeks of school, the Chino Hills Police Department conducted roadway safety extra patrol operations in the school zones. The purpose of the operation was to enhance roadway safety through education and enforcement action for violations of the California Vehicle Code and Chino Hills Municipal Code, and to prevent traffic collisions.

During the operation, 170 traffic and parking citations were issued for illegal turns, speeding, crossing the double-parallel yellow lines, distracted driving, crosswalk violations, stopping in posted no stopping zones, obstruction to traffic, and parking in fire lanes. The Chino Hills Police Department is committed to delivering quality public safety services to the residents of the City of Chino Hills, and the County of San Bernardino.
