SUMMARY

On August 15, 2018, at approximately 7:49 a.m., deputies from the Chino Hills Station responded to the report of a commercial burglary. The suspects forced entry into the building by using a pry bar to remove a window. A laptop worth $1200.00 was stolen during the burglary and the crime was captured on video surveillance. Through investigation, Villalobos was identified as one of the suspects.

On September 6, 2018, Chino Hills Police detectives secured an arrest warrant for Villalobos and a search warrant for his residence. On September 12, 2018, a search warrant was served at Villalobos' residence where he was arrested and found in possession of approximately $30,000 worth of stolen/recovered property. The stolen property was linked to burglaries in the cities of Brea, Chino, Upland and Pomona. Villalobos was booked for commercial burglary and possession of known stolen property, with a $100,000 bail and a no bail Parole hold. Villalobos is being held at West Valley Detention Center.
