ROD HILL NAMED ASSISTANT CITY MANAGER

Chino Hills, CA – Rod Hill has assumed the duties of Assistant City Manager at the City of Chino Hills. In his new role, he will oversee the Human Resources, Information Technology, Code Enforcement, and Community Relations Divisions. He also has responsibility for risk management, and the contracts for solid waste, animal care and control, and law enforcement services.

“Rod brings with him a wealth of knowledge and 31 years of experience in local government,” said City Manager Ben Montgomery. “His background is a great fit for the City of Chino Hills.”

Mr. Hill earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration at the University of La Verne, and his Master of Public Administration degree from Anna Maria College in Massachusetts. His education also includes certificates in Accounting for Governmental and Non-Profit Organizations, and Emergency Management for Government and Public Sector.

He started his career in the Finance Department at the City of Brea and the City of Anaheim. He worked his way up to Assistance Finance Director at the City of Redlands where his responsibilities also included Information Technology, Risk Management, Accounting and Budgeting. Mr. Hill was appointed Director of Administrative Services for the City of Whittier in 2003. During his 17-year tenure in Whittier his responsibilities grew to include Director of Human Resources, City Treasurer, Emergency Management, and Animal Control.

Volunteerism has played a big role in his life including service as a Park Ranger (Reserve) in Orange County, an Adjunct Instructor at the California Specialized Training Institute, and a member of the West Valley Search and Rescue Team of the San Bernardino County Sheriff’s Department. Mr. Hill and his wife Laurie have lived in Chino for 29 years. They have three adult children.
