Application Information

This application is required for the alteration or expansion of every use that is allowed within a land use district subject to a Conditional Use Permit.

This is an Actual Cost application. The actual cost for a project is determined according to the time spent by personnel on that project and the associated personnel benefits, department overhead, and other costs incurred for that project.

Initial Deposits are determined by the fee schedule adopted by City Council. Refer to the Community Development Fee/Deposit Schedule for application fee amounts.

Once the application is assigned to a project manager, an estimated budget will be prepared based on the scope of the project, including the amount of time spent on the project. The deposit of additional funds shall be required if the Trust Deposit Account falls below 25% of the budget remaining for the project. Notification of additional deposit required will be mailed to the applicant, who shall deposit such additional monies prior to the date specified in the notice. Projects will not be completed with money due. If the additional deposit is not made by the date specified in the notice, the project shall be suspended, without further action on the part of the City.

CONDITIONAL USE PERMIT INFORMATION & PROCEDURES:

1. Before submitting your application, the City encourages you or your representative to discuss your development proposal with the Planning Division staff at the Community Development public counter or via telephone phone by calling the Planning Division at (909) 364-2740. For projects that require information from multiple divisions and departments within the City, a pre-application conference or consultation may be appropriate. Once a pre-application is submitted, the Project Review Committee (PRC) will meet to discuss the project, identify potential issues, and determine if technical studies will be required with the formal application.
2. Once a formal application is submitted, the application will be scheduled for a PRC meeting, where staff from the different departments and divisions will comment on the proposal, discuss whether the application is complete or incomplete, and identify any corrections that are required on the plan(s). If the application is deemed incomplete and/or corrections are required, the applicant shall submit the additional information that is required to make the application complete and provide revised plans. Once the revised plans are submitted, the PRC will review the plans, determine the completeness of the application, and identify any outstanding issues on the plans.
3. Once the application is deemed complete, the Project Manager (PM) will conduct an initial environmental review, called an "Initial Study", to determine if additional information is required to complete the environmental review. If additional information is not required, the PM will determine the type of environmental document that is required for the project as required by the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA), such as a Negative Declaration, or Environmental Impact Report (EIR). Subsequently, the PM will prepare the appropriate environmental document and request Conditions of Approval from the PRC. If an EIR is required for the project, the City will prepare the environmental document. The cost of preparing the EIR must be paid by the developer prior to the commencement of work on the EIR. Once the environmental document is complete and the project is ready for a Planning Commission hearing, the PM will make the environmental document available for public review, send copies to the appropriate agencies and persons who request the document for review in accordance with the CEQA Guidelines, and provide notice of the public hearing in accordance with Section 16.58 of the Chino Hills Municipal Code.
4. The Planning Commission will make a decision to either approve or deny the project at a public hearing. A decision by the Planning Commission to approve, deny, or impose specific conditions on the approval of a conditional use permit application may be appealed by any interested party, including the applicant, to the City Council. The appeal must be filed with the City Clerk on the appropriate appeal form, along with the appropriate fee, within ten (10) working days of the Planning Commission action.

SPECIFIC PLOT PLAN REQUIREMENTS FOR CONDITIONAL USE PERMIT:

A plot plan is a drawing, to scale, on one sheet of paper (minimum 18" x 24") of the entire land parcel showing buildings, improvements, other physical features and all dimensions.

If no signs are proposed or not proposed at this time, include a note indicating signage will be submitted at a later date.

PARKING:

Refer to CHMC Section 16.34 for the number of required parking spaces, aisle/driveway width and surfacing requirements for your project. Show parking areas in detail to include:

- Commercial, industrial, or Institutional Projects: If a project consists of a social care facility, day care center, hospital, school, animal shelter, etc., state day and hours of operation, age or grade of students, number of students or children, beds, residents or animals as well as number of staff members. If public assembly use, (i.e. church, theater) state maximum anticipated occupancy and interior square feet of seating area in auditorium.

CITY OF CHINO HILLS

PLANNING COMMISSION POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

EX PARTE COMMUNICATIONS

Date Accepted: 11/05/2019

1. PURPOSE

The Planning Commission intends to make transparent its communications with project applicants and residents by establishing a policy for Planning Commission ex parte communications regarding adjudicatory and quasi-judicial proceedings.

2. BACKGROUND

An ex parte communication is any oral or written communication with a Planning Commissioner that is relevant to the merits of a proceeding, and which takes place outside of a noticed public hearing or similar proceeding open to all parties to the matter. These communications include oral and written information, but can also include any other communication, such as visual or auditory information obtained during a site visit. Casual communications that are non-substantive in manner are not ex parte communications.

Adjudicatory or quasi-judicial proceedings are proceedings in which “due process guarantees” apply because there is a property interest (ownership rights) at stake. Typical examples of these types of proceedings include property development applications (Tentative Tract Maps, Site Plan Applications, Specific Plans, Conditional Use Permits, Variances, etc.) or permit revocations.

For the purposes of this policy, ex parte communications are a concern only in adjudicatory or quasi-judicial decision-making matters. Planning Commissioners will follow the policy provided below for all such matters that have a proposed or active entitlement application with the City of Chino Hills or for permit revocations or modifications.

3. POLICY FOR ADJUDICATORY AND QUASI-JUDICIAL PROCEEDINGS

3.1 If anyone requests contact with a Planning Commissioner, the Planning Commissioner will endeavor to direct that person to use a City “Planning Commission” email address and phone line that staff will monitor and then forward applicable emails and messages to the Planning Commission.

3.2 Each Planning Commissioner will be provided business cards with the City “Planning Commission” email and phone contact information.

- 3.3 Any information intended for Planning Commission review on an adjudicatory or quasi-judicial proceeding will be submitted to staff who will distribute it. Should a Planning Commissioner receive information directly, the Commissioner will provide that information to staff as soon as feasible.
- 3.4 To the greatest extent possible, all communications with a Planning Commissioner on an adjudicatory or quasi-judicial proceeding, that occurs outside agendaized meetings, will be directed through City staff. When such communication does occur without staff involvement, the Commissioner will notify staff as soon as feasible to ensure the communication is included in the public record for the proceeding.
- 3.5 To the greatest extent possible, all meetings with a Planning Commissioner on an adjudicatory or quasi-judicial proceeding, will be arranged and attended by staff. When a meeting does occur without staff involvement, the Commissioner will notify staff of the meeting and the content of the meeting as soon as feasible to ensure the information is included in the public record for the proceeding.
- 3.6 A Planning Commissioner will announce the details of evidence received in any communication or meeting outside of a Commission meeting, or outside of a staff attended meeting, at the beginning of the Planning Commission meeting at which the item will be considered.
- 3.7 There shall be no communications with a Planning Commissioner during the period between the closing of a public hearing and the final decision on an adjudicatory or quasi-judicial proceeding.
- 3.8 The Planning Commission will review this policy annually at its first regularly agendaized meeting of the calendar year and have the opportunity to modify the policy at that meeting.

For the purposes of this policy, City staff shall mean the Planning Commission Secretary and the Community Development Department Director.
