AEROJET CHINO HILLS FACILITY Chino Hills, California

Dear Community Member:

We are in need of your assistance. Our agency, the Department of Toxic Substances Control (DTSC), invites you to complete and return the attached community survey questionnaire assessing public interest in the Aerojet Chino Hills Facility located at end of Woodview Road, Chino Hills, CA 91709.

The Facility has been an inactive Site since 1995. The former Aerojet Chino Hills Facility consists of about 800 acres located in an undeveloped area of the City of Chino Hills. The former facility is undergoing restoration and transition from a former military ordnance assembly and testing facility for the US Armed Forces to a property that presents a potential beneficial reuse. Similar sites involving military activities have undergone restoration activities that have allowed for designated reuse. DTSC is overseeing the investigation, and intends to certify that the site is appropriate for unrestricted use, with the exception of two areas that would have restrictions on the construction of water wells. DTSC takes no position on the particular use, and is only certifying that the Site would have no restrictions on its use due to the presence of hazardous waste.

As part of its determination process, DTSC required Aerojet to conduct a Human and Ecological Risk Assessment, which concluded that there is no significant risk to human health or the environment in the vicinity of the site. The Risk Assessment and other Site documents are available at https://www.envirostor.dtsc.ca.gov/public/profile\_report?global\_id=80001476

Thank you in advance for completing the enclosed community survey questionnaire. Please complete and return the survey questionnaire by April 14, 2021
