

WILDFIRE & EMERGENCY RESPONSE

COMMUNITY MEETING

Chino Valley Fire

SPEAKERS: DAVE WILLIAMS, FIRE CHIEF

DANIELLE O'TOOLE, FIRE MARSHAL

Chino Valley Fire

WHAT WE LEARNED

Chino Valley Fire

WILDLAND URBAN INTERFACE

Have a Plan – “Ready, Set, Go”

- Make Sure the Entire Household Knows the Plan
 - You may need to collaborate with neighbors when away from home
- Identify Special Needs – Moving Elderly or Incapacitated
- Plan for Large Animal Transportation and/or Boarding
- Gather Necessary Items:
 - Eye Glasses
 - Medications
 - Cell Phones/Chargers
 - Valuable Documents
 - Basic Clothing
 - Credit Cards or Cash on Hand

Have a Plan – “Ready, Set, Go”

- Have a Predesignated Location For Family to Reconvene at that is Away from the Emergency
- Please Leave when the Evacuation Order is Given
 - Allows Emergency personnel will be able to give their full attention to the emergency
 - Lost items can be replaced

During the Incident

- Try to Be Patient
- Sign Up for Emergency Notifications Before an Emergency Happens
- Do Not Return to Impacted Area until Authorities Advise that it is Safe to do so

Incident Stabilized – New Hazards May Exist

- Be Mindful that Emergency Responders May Still be in the Area Working to Return to Pre-incident Conditions
- Maintain a Heightened Level of Awareness While Driving Through Impacted Areas
- Exercise Caution if Damage to your Property has Occurred
 - Downed electrical Wires, burned vegetation
 - Realize additional challenges may come from flooding and mudslides, if inclement weather is forecasted
- Report Any Issues to the Proper Authorities Immediately

Chino Valley Fire

WILDFIRE PREPAREDNESS

WILDFIRE PREPAREDNESS

READY! SET! GO!

YOUR PERSONAL WILDFIRE ACTION PLAN

Ready

Prepare now.

Defensible Space.
Home Hardening.

Set

Be alert.

Be packed up and ready to go.

Go!

Evacuate!

Follow instructions
from officials.

